

Skin to skin care t/f questions

1. Babies are born with the ability to breastfeed
 - a. True
 - b. False
2. Babies who are provided with skin to skin care immediately after birth will breastfeed for a longer time.
 - a. True
 - b. False
3. Allowing grandma to hold her new grandchild is not a barrier to skin to skin care
 - a. True
 - b. False
4. Babies should always be given a bath immediately after birth to reduce bacteria being transferred to the mother
 - a. True
 - b. False
5. Babies provided with skin to skin care are less likely to suffer from hyperthermia
 - a. True
 - b. False
6. Mothers should lie flat on their backs when doing skin to skin care so they can see their baby
 - a. True
 - b. False
7. Mothers receiving epidurals during delivery may have to practice skin to skin care with their infants a bit longer
 - a. True
 - b. False
8. Babies who arch away from their mothers are not ready to breastfeed
 - a. True
 - b. False
9. Skin to skin care can lead to maternal confidence
 - a. True
 - b. False